Sub: Feedback on VNSGU Syllabus form different stakeholders B.K.M Science
College Valsad

Dear Sir,

Please find enclosed herewith feedback on the current syllabus of VNSGU collected by our college from its stakeholder's viz. students, teachers, employers and alumni.

From analysis of the feedback, IQAC has found that the students are to a certain extent satisfied with the current syllabus but a few percent of them feel that the current syllabus requires for the better.

In view of above, I take this opportunity to bring it to your notice the feedback report which would help the University during the next revision of the syllabus.

Thanking You

Yours sincerely,

Principal,
B.K.M. Science College,

Overall observation of students' feedback about the syllabus

- Since they are not used to studying online and occasionally run into network issues, they don't seem to be as excited about it.
- It seems that the students are generally content with the current curriculum, but they also believe that there is room for additional growth.

Overall observation of employer feedback about the syllabus

- Based on the input, we deduce that the institute needs to launch specific training programmes to improve its students' soft skills. Additionally, there is a perception that the current curricula require some sort of change to improve student performance across the board.
- The response confirms that the institution is successful in helping students acquire the necessary communication skills.
